

May 17, 1973

PRESIDENT: I'm sorry. It was only the amendment number two that I was dividing, not the division of this particular question. Well, all right. Clerk will have to help me here then I'm don't know where we can divide the question there.

CLERK: Senator Carpenter, would it be proper to just divide your two paragraphs in this second amendment? Yes. ok. So then the first one would be, that it is the declared policy of the State that it is necessary to regulate the control and sale of distribution of alcoholic liquors, and the state shall charge to each licensee the place of this nation a similar price for each brand of alcoholic liquor. So then we should adopt the whole one Mr. President, that we just read.

PRESIDENT: The whole amendment.

CLERK: The one I just read.

PRESIDENT: That one is not divisible.

CLERK: No.

PRESIDENT: All right, that was the chairs understanding also. Now Senator Carpenter, back to you.

SENATOR CARPENTER: In my judgement, pertains only to the elimination of the dispenser from being included in the bill. In which no licensee now or one working for a license will be required to obtain a license before he can work in any type of liquor license. That is all this amendment does.

PRESIDENT: All right now--

SENATOR CARPENTER: There are a few minor--where they have no substance.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich, discussing the Carpenter amendment number 2.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Now, for example, Senator Lewis asked for a division of the question which we thought at that time, what we were talking about dispensers, licensing of dispensers and the transportation costs. Now, the amendment that Vince Brown read, is not the amendment to license the dispensers. What, I'd like to know is just what amendment we are voting on right now? The thing that concerned me frankly, was the reference to same price for all brands. Mr. Clerk would you read the actual amendment that we are voting on now.

CLERK: (Read amendment)

SENATOR CARPENTER: What the order is.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: What the clerk has read has to do only with the delivery, F.O.B. destination. The other amendment has to do with dispensers. Have you got them both up there?

PRESIDENT: That is the chairs understanding. Do we--

SENATOR CARPENTER: All right, the one you are voting on now,

(End of Belt #13)